PAPER 3 Role Play A

4064/3

SPECIMEN PAPER

Instructions to candidate:

Carry out the task outlined in the situation below. The parts to be played by the examiner and yourself are explained. You must assume that the examiner speaks no English.

You are NOT allowed to make written notes during your preparation, nor to use dictionaries.

Information for candidates:

Remember that you are taking part in a conversation: you must respond to questions or comments made by the examiner and not simply carry out the task as though the examiner were not there.

Remember that you do not need to translate word for word into French – the important thing is to get across the information to the person you are talking to.

You will have your instructions to refer to during the examination.

N.B.

In order to make the conversations as realistic as possible, try to include greetings, goodbyes, thanks and similar phrases which would be used naturally in these situations.

This specimen paper consists of 2 printed pages.
