

ZIMBABWE SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS COUNCIL
General Certificate Of Education Ordinary Level

ECONOMIC HISTORY

PAPER 1: ECONOMIC HISTORY OF ZIMBABWE TO 1980.

4046/1

2 hours

SPECIMEN PAPER

Additional materials:

Answer booklet

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the spaces provided on the answer booklet.

Answer any four questions.

Write your answers on the separate answer booklet provided.

If you use more than one booklet, fasten the sheets together.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

This paper consists of 15 questions.

Each question in this paper carries 25 marks.

This specimen paper consists of 3 printed pages.

Copyright: Zimbabwe School Examinations Council, Specimen paper.

1. (a) Outline any five characteristics of each of the following modes of production:
 - (i) primitive communalism
 - (ii) feudalism
 - (iii) slavery

[15]
- (b) Land degradation was a common problem in pre-colonial societies.
 Suggest, in essay form, any five methods that could have been used by pre-colonial societies to prevent land degradation.

[10]
2. (a) Give an account of any five uses of cattle in the Great Zimbabwe state.

[15]
- (b) Decline in trade caused economic instability at Great Zimbabwe.
 Propose, in essay form, any five measures the state could have introduced to stabilise the economy.

[10]
3. (a) Describe any five economic effects of iron technology on pre-colonial Zimbabwean societies.

[15]
- (b) Iron technology led to environmental degradation.
 Recommend, in essay form, any five strategies that could have been used by Iron age societies to preserve their environment.

[10]
4. (a) Outline any five uses of craft during the Stone Age period.

[15]
- (b) Khoisan hunting methods were ineffective.
 Suggest, in essay form, any five strategies that could have been used by the Khoisan to make their hunting more productive.

[10]
5. (a) Describe any five economic activities carried out in the prazos by the Portuguese.

[15]
- (b) Africans were exploited in Portuguese prazos.
 Propose, in essay form, any five methods that could have been used by the Mutapa people to resist economic domination.

[10]

6. (a) Give an account of any five economic activities of the Portuguese in the Mutapa state. [15]
- (b) The Mutapa king lost control of trade to the Portuguese.
- Recommend, in essay form, any five strategies the Mutapa could have employed to regain control of trade from the Portuguese. [10]
7. (a) Outline any five economic terms of the Rudd Concession. [15]
- (b) Concession seekers were a problem to Lobengula.
- Suggest, in essay form, any five methods Lobengula could have used to protect his state from concession seekers. [10]
8. (a) Describe any five economic motives of the Pioneer column.
- (b) Africans became poorer due to loss of land to the Pioneer column. [10]
- Propose, in essay form, any five ways that could have been used by the Africans to prevent land appropriation by the Pioneer white settlers. [15]
9. (a) Give an account of any five economic effects of the Land Apportionment Act of 1930. [15]
- (b) Land Apportionment Act of 1930 impoverished Africans.
- Recommend, in essay form, any five solutions that could have been taken to deal with the negative effects of the Land Apportionment Act of 1930. [10]
10. (a) Outline any five economic reasons for the colonisation of Zimbabwe. [15]
- (b) Disunity weakened African resistance to European occupation of their territories.
- Suggest, in essay form, any five measures African leaders could have employed to strengthen their resistance to European occupation. [10]
11. (a) Describe any five measures that were taken by the settler government to improve settler agriculture between 1908 and 1951. [15]
- (b) Settler agricultural policies weakened African peasant farming between 1908 and 1951.
- Propose in essay form, any five strategies peasants could have used to deal with negative effects of settler policies on their farming activities during this period. [10]

12. (a) Give an account of any five methods that were used to recruit labour in colonial Zimbabwe between 1890 and 1930. [15]
- (b) Colonial labour policies weakened African economies.
- Recommend, in essay form, any five ways Africans could have implemented to revive their economies. [10]
13. (a) Describe any five features of Industrial development in colonial Zimbabwe. [15]
- (b) Settler exploitation of African resources led to forced labour.
- Suggest, in essay form, any five methods Africans could have used to resist forced labour. [10]
14. (a) Outline any five economic factors for the formation of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland. [15]
- (b) The Federation economically favoured Southern Rhodesia at the expense of Northern Rhodesia and Nyasaland.
- Recommend, in essay form, any five methods Federal leaders could have introduced to ensure equal benefits for all territories. [10]
15. (a) Give an account of any five effects of the Unilateral Declaration of Independence (UDI) on the economy of Rhodesia. [15]
- (b) Sanctions weakened the economy of Rhodesia.
- Propose, in essay form, any five measures the Smith Regime could have taken to lessen the negative effects of sanctions on the Rhodesian economy? [10]