

ZIMBABWE SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS COUNCIL
General Certificate Of Education Ordinary Level

MUSICAL ARTS

PAPER 3: Performance Proficiency§

4062/3

TIME: 8 – 10 minutes per candidate
(Performance)

SPECIMEN PAPER

INSTRUCTIONS TO SUPERVISORS

This paper is for use by the music teacher and the candidates.

1. A candidate is expected to perform in an ensemble of 2 to 8 members.
2. The candidate is expected to perform on any instrument of choice.
3. The performance is expected to be done before an audience.

This question paper consists of 4 printed pages.

Copyright: Zimbabwe School Examinations Council, Specimen Paper.

Create or arrange a musical piece on the theme ‘Promoting equal opportunities for all.’

Perform the piece in an ensemble on examination day. [50]

Guiding Notes

- Think about what equal opportunities are.
- Imagine a world where everyone has the same chances in life.
- Express the message through music.
- Focus on the advantages of having equal opportunities in society.
- The attire should be suitable for your performance.

PREPARED PERFORMANCE EXAMINATION ACHIEVEMENT STANDARDS

Candidate name
Centre and candidate number

Aspect	Excellent	Good	Satisfactory	Below Average
Song structure and arrangement (10 marks) • Introduction • Development • Climax • Resolution	(9-10) • demonstrates a well-crafted and cohesive structure • transitions are seamless and purposeful, with each section complementing the overall structure brilliantly.	(7-8) • presents a clear and organized structure • sections are distinct and flow logically	(5-6) • displays a recognizable structure with consistent sections • transitions are simple but serve the performance well.	(1-4) • shows developing understanding of structure • sections are identifiable with promising organization and room for refinement.
Technical Proficiency (10 marks) • Accuracy of execution • Tone quality & control • Technique & articulation • Confidence in delivery	(9-10) • demonstrates outstanding technical control and confident delivery • highly polished performance, musically compelling and engaging throughout.	(7-8) • demonstrates solid technical ability and musical understanding • polished performance, musically engaging throughout.	(5-6) • demonstrates basic proficiency with moderate control of musical techniques • performance musically engaging in most parts.	(1-4) • demonstrates growing technical control and musical expression.
Collaboration and Responsiveness (7 marks) • Musical interaction • Adaptability • Role awareness	(7) • demonstrates outstanding musical awareness and seamlessly responds to others in performance. • adjusts with precision and sensitivity to changes in tempo, dynamics, and musical cues. • fully understands and confidently plays his/her role within the ensemble, enhancing group cohesion. • maintains strong musical dialogue with others creating a polished and unified performance.	(6) • demonstrates consistent interaction with others in performance. • adjusts effectively to changes in group dynamics and contributes positively throughout. • understands his/her role and performs it reliably, supporting overall ensemble balance. • collaborates with awareness and maintains good musical communication.	(4-5) • responds to musical cues with some awareness and effort to adapt during performance. • demonstrates a developing understanding of ensemble roles and contributes steadily • shows willingness to collaborate and responds to group changes with growing confidence.	(1-3) • makes a positive effort to engage with others during performance. • shows emerging responsiveness to musical cues and group dynamics. • attempts to fulfil ensemble role with enthusiasm and developing control. • demonstrates a growing foundation in collaborative performance skills.
Originality and creativity (7 marks) • Idea generation • Variations • Rhythm techniques	(7) • demonstrates exceptional originality with imaginative musical ideas • creative use of rhythm and compelling variations.	(6) • demonstrates a thoughtful approach to idea development and rhythmic choices with clear creative intent. • variations and rhythmic patterns add character and	(4-5) • presents some creative elements or stylistic choices. • relies mostly on familiar patterns but shows effort toward musical creativity.	(1-3) • musical creativity is emerging. • still learning to take artistic risks.

Stage presence and Engagement (6 marks) - Confidence - Audience connection - Performance energy	(6) - charisma and confidence highly demonstrated - fully engages the audience with expressive gestures, eye contact, and dynamic energy that elevates the performance.	(5) - maintains a strong presence with clear communication and connection. - performance feels assured and audience engagement is consistent.	(3-4) - shows growing confidence and some expressive qualities. - engagement is moderate and intention is evident.	(1-2) - presents with impact on some of the sections - engagement is developing and shows potential for projection and connection.
Expressiveness (6 marks) - Mood and character - Body language, gestures	(6) - demonstrates profound emotional depth and artistic insight. - uses expressive body language that powerfully enhances musical interpretation and captivates the audience.	(5) - displays clear emotional intent and thoughtful interpretation. - shows clear expressiveness through body language that supports musical delivery.	(3-4) - attempts to express mood and feeling. - shows growing awareness of how body movement can enhance performance.	(1-2) - expression is developing. - basic gestures and posture show potential for emotional connection.
Ensemble management (4 marks) - coordination - leadership	(4) - seamlessly coordinates ensemble members. - shows strong leadership and responsiveness, maintaining tight rhythmic alignment and musical cohesion.	(3) - engages well with the ensemble. - Shows some leadership skills.	(2) - makes a conscious effort to follow the ensemble. - generally supportive of group performance.	(1) developing coordination skills.