1. THE FAST TRACK LAND REFORM PROGRAMME

Carefully study the following sources and answer all the questions which follow.

SOURCE A

Flash-back: Angry Svosve villagers, led by war veterans flooded to White commercial farms in what became known as the Third Chimurenga.

(Adapted from a book written by Zimbabwean writer published 2012).

SOURCE B

People will seize the land if we do not proceed with the Bill and we will not be able to move them. We have to proceed in an orderly manner. Aid or no aid we will proceed. This is a do or die matter for us. We will not brook threats from any quarter.

(Adapted from a book by a Zimbabwean historian published in 2012).

SOURCE C

It is widely considered that land is best held by those people who are best qualified to promote sustainable production. Qualification is not a piece of paper to say I have a Diploma in Agriculture, its part thereof. Education is not the end. It's a nice start. Unless you have resources, you can't afford to go farming. Accordingly, one needs to be resourceful, have ability, experience, initiative and integrity. The little things which you can't explain.

(Adapted from a book by a Zimbabwean historian published in 2010).
